3. A governmental decree of 6 December 1961 urged all parts of the nationalized economy to complete contracts within the DDR economic plan on everything which incurred obligations for delivery and procurement.
2. A second order of the same date established a State Contract Court. The assignment of this body is to settle any disputes which result from the conclusion of contracts.
3. The Court is made up of a chairman, deputy chairman, and eight members. The members are chairmen of the court committees (Gerichtskommissionen). Each of the eight committees has two men in attendance (Beisitzer) who, as a rule, represent the Ministries which are responsible for the two disputants.
4. The court is made up of the following members:
